Jessica Martin · 1st

Career Coordinator at Iowa State University

January 23, 2025, Jessica was Ima's teacher

Ima has been a joy to work with throughout their undergraduate career in the Ivy College of Business. As Ima's course instructor, I was able to witness their work ethic and team mentality first hand. They are a passionate leader and innovative problem solver, constantly rising to a challenge. Throughout the semester that I taught Ima, they constantly showed initiative to learn by regularly coming to office hours and volunteering to assist with department events. I am confident that Ima will be a great candidate for a professional career in Finance.
